

Toastmasters

Club Officer Roles and Responsibilities

President

The President is the chief executive officer for the club. The primary responsibilities of this role involve the general supervision and operation of the club.

The President directs the club in meeting the members' needs for educational growth and leadership. In cooperation with the other officers, the President establishes long-term and short-term goals for the club. Regular Executive Team meetings will be convened by the President.

Vice President Education

The Vice President Education (VPE) manages all educational programs within the club. The primary responsibilities of this role involve ensuring that all members continue their progress toward their own individual educational goals.

The VPE plans, organizes, and implements meeting schedules to include speeches, educational modules, and other events sufficient to meet both individual and club objectives. When members complete a speech or other major achievement, the VPE will sign or initial the appropriate documentation and contact Toastmasters International to ensure proper recognition. New members will receive orientation and be assigned a mentor (if required) by the VPE.

Vice President Membership

The Vice President Membership (VPM) manages the activities that sustain and increase the number of members in the club. The primary responsibilities of this role involve marketing and some administration.

The VPM plans, organizes, and implements a continuous marketing effort to ensure that club membership remains above club charter strength (20 members). This is accomplished both by retaining current members (working with the VPE) and by gaining new members (working with the VPPR). The VPM is usually the primary contact for new member and visitor enquiries. The VPM is responsible for keeping the membership roster and attendance records.

Vice President Public Relations

The Vice President Public Relations (VPPR) manages the creation and maintenance of the club's image. The primary responsibilities of this role involve both internal and external communications.

The VPPR plans, organizes, and implements programs to maintain the positive image of the club and of Toastmasters for an audience consisting of all guests, members, and the general public. Common activities in this role include press releases, publicity campaigns, website maintenance, media representation, and club newsletters.

Secretary

The Secretary manages all record-keeping and correspondence. The primary responsibilities of this role involve handling administrative details between the club and Toastmasters International and keeping the club's documents available and up-to-date.

The Secretary maintains the club's records, including club by-laws and the club constitution. The Secretary also prepares the agenda and minutes for club business sessions and for meetings of the Executive Team.

Treasurer

The Treasurer manages the club's financial health. The primary responsibilities of this role involve handling the club's finances, including the collection of club dues and the payment of all bills.

The Treasurer receives and disburses funds to further the operation of the club and its officers. Twice annually, the Treasurer must notify members of dues collection, collect club dues from each member, and send semi-annual membership reports to Toastmasters International. The Treasurer will also process New Member applications forms and payments.

Sergeant at Arms

The Sergeant at Arms (SAA) manages the club's meeting facilities and decorum. The primary responsibilities of this role involve all those tasks expected of the host of the meeting.

The SAA arranges the room and setup for all meetings, sets out and cares for the club's materials and supplies, and greets members -- and especially guests -- as they come in the door.

The SAA starts/restarts the meetings with vim, vigour, energy, wit and whimsy.

Immediate Past President

The Immediate Past President guides and supports the Executive Team. The primary responsibilities of this role involve serving as a resource for new officers and ensuring continuity with past terms.

The Immediate Past President chairs the Nominating Committee, assists in preparing the Club Success Plan, and promotes the club's efforts to be recognized under the Distinguished Club Program.

Copyright © 1999 Thaves, Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Association, Inc.
Redistribution in whole or in part prohibited